“Where else can you find accessibility like this?
From the biggest airport
in Canada to an extensive network of transcontinental highways, and the largest intermodal railway terminal
in Canada, Brampton is one of the most connected cities in North America.
We're right in the middle of it all—
just where you want to be.”

Doug Munro
President,
MO Freightworks Ltd.

Market Access*AIR

One of the greatest logistical advantages for Brampton businesses is its proximity to Toronto Pearson, Canada's largest international airport, just minutes away. Canada's busiest airport is the hub for over 49 million passengers annually with flights to 210 destinations and handling over 312,000 tons of air cargo a year.

LAND

Brampton is at the centre of Canada's major transportation corridors and provides proximity and access to the U.S. border. Being within a day's drive of 158 million US consumers makes Brampton the ideal place to locate North American operations.

SEA

Situated between two of the largest ports on Lake Ontario (Port of Toronto and Port of Hamilton) Brampton has direct access to the most important domestic and international transportation systems, as well as the Atlantic Ocean via the St. Lawrence Seaway. This waterway to the world provides key transportation, distribution, storage and container services.

RAIL

Brampton is home to CN – Canada's largest Intermodal Terminal, servicing over 2,000 trucks daily from its 195-acre multimodal facility located in the Greater Toronto Hamilton Area supply chain corridor. Both the CN Intermodal Terminal and the CP terminal (located on the Brampton's border) provide direct access to the Asia-Pacific Gateway through quick and efficient import of container goods coming via rail from Vancouver and Prince-Rupert maritime ports. They also connect to the US through Detroit and Europe via the Montreal port.

BRAMPTON MEANS BUSINESS NOW*Access and Location

Brampton is at the hub of North America's transportation network with the added plus of being home to Canada's largest inland port. Its location and access to skilled workers along with the ability to expedite trade through international agreements make Brampton an economic gateway for quick and efficient movement of goods and service.
